

SAVE THE DATE: JUST A WEEK UNTIL THE 1st EUROPEAN EVENT OF FREERIDE WORLD TOUR (FWT) 2018 IN VALLNORD-ARCALÍS, ANDORRA

February 22, 2018 – Lutry, Switzerland – FWT riders hunting down the world title will get their third chance to “Hold The Line” during the competition weather window extending from March 1-7 at the Andorran freeride capital.

In seven days, FWT athletes hungry for crucial points in the world title race will descend on the majestic Pyrenean peaks of Andorra, kicking off the European leg of the five-stop 2018 season. Local pro and Andorran freeride ski hero Dani Fornell-Prat (AND) will receive the local wild card and join the current roster of top freeriders.

Following two action-packed competitions in Kicking Horse, Golden, BC, Canada, momentum is soaring as the FWT competitors begin to hone in on the road to the Grand Finale in Verbier in April.

Along with the highly-anticipated showdown of the world's best freeriders, fans and spectators alike will benefit from a full schedule of events throughout the week. The official ceremony in Ordino will kick things off on Friday, March 2, and the atmosphere will be buzzing as always in the event village in Arcalís from March 3-4, which includes a free ski test. The week concludes with the FWT Party in Ordino on Saturday, March 3, before riders head off to Fieberbrunn, Austria.

Never miss a moment of the action in Vallnord-Arcalís; Follow FWT social media channels and check www.freerideworldtour.com for latest competition info and the live video stream of the event.
